eXit SPACE | NOD Theater is proud to offer a residency and performance program for dance artists residing in and creating work in Seattle, WA. The PROPEL residency includes free studio space to create work, mentorship (designed by artist in collaboration with Artistic Director, Marlo Martin), promotional resources, and a full production team for performances scheduled for April 25-27, 2025 at NOD Theater. PROPEL is designed to function as an artist's incubator, offering time for choreographers to create and be supported in their artistic endeavor.

PROPEL DETAILS & REQUIREMENTS

- Residency: The PROPEL artist residency begins December 1, 2024 and culminates with a fully produced performance series, April 25-27, 2025.
- Mentorship: Selected artists will receive collaborative mentorship from Artistic Director, Marlo Martin, focused on production, choreography, staging, or funding/the business of dance for profit.
- Complimentary rehearsal space: Selected artists receive up to six hours per week of free rehearsal space at eXit SPACE studios, with the choice between theNEST (Green Lake), Studio SEA (Green Lake), and NOD Theater (Capitol Hill).
- Pre-production meeting: PROPEL artists are required to participate in one 1-2 hour pre-production meeting during the month of February.
- Tech & dress: Tech and dress rehearsals will take place Wednesday and Thursday, April 23-24, 2025 between 4:30-10pm (details TBA); all artists must be available during these times.
- Performance: Three PROPEL artists will present work at a fully produced performance series at eXit SPACE | NOD Theater, April 25-27, 2025
- Choreography stipend: Choreographers receive a $1,000 PROPEL Artist Stipend
- Community engagement: All selected artists are asked to uplift the PROPEL program and eXit SPACE | NOD Theater within the greater community. As an element of this program, artists are required to offer one open rehearsal for the public during the month of February 2025 at one of the three eXit SPACE locations, promoted and curated by eXit SPACE.

ELIGIBILITY

- Must be a resident of Washington and over the age of 18
- Minimum of 2 years presenting or performing work professionally
- PROPEL is designed for established and emerging dance artists/choreographers/creators
